

ICN GATEWAY EXPRESSION OF INTEREST (EOI)

PARAMEDIC AND RESCUE SERVICES

ICN invites Expressions of Interest from potential contractors that have the capability and capacity to perform the following package of work as part of the Aurukun Bauxite Project.

PACKAGE TITLE: PARAMEDIC AND RESCUE SERVICES

All EOI submissions should be made through the ICN Gateway.

Scope of Works

The Project requires a contractor for provision of 24-hour paramedical services to support the Project site including accommodation and recreational areas.

The scope of works will cover two phases:

Construction period of approximately 24 months including a 450 bed construction camp.

Ongoing operations post construction period including a workforce of 480 and Accommodation Village housing 280 beds

The Scope of Works for this package includes:

- Mobilisation and demobilisation
- Provision of routine and emergency first aid, includes high level paramedical care for medical and/or trauma related incidents
- Provision and maintenance of competence for advanced rescue techniques including confined space and vertical rope rescue
- Provision of capability to provide emergency mutual assistance to Aurukun community and surrounds
- Provision of all medications and scheduled drugs required to perform paramedical care
- Capability to administer drug and alcohol testing for workforce
- Undertake injury management for construction and operations workforce as required
- Undertake periodic health assessments including hearing tests and respirator fit testing (with spirometry) where required
- Provision of temporary clinic (portable/demountable) during construction phase (permanent facilities will be constructed during construction phase to be made available for ongoing operations)
- Provision of fully fitted and functional site ambulance, fire fighting vehicle and emergency response vehicles capable of servicing the remote site for construction and operational phases
- Maintenance of medical records including health records in line with QLD/Federal Govt requirements
- Incident and emergency management in conjunction with the Project Health and Safety Management Plan

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Liaise with Royal Flying Doctor Service (RFDS), Queensland Police Service (QPS) and Queensland Fire and Rescue Service (QFRS) where required for emergency medical evacuations • Liaise with on site Security Services provider The selected Contractor shall provide all management, training, supervision, labour, equipment, including all temporary buildings, furnishings, tools, consumables and operating supplies, materials and incidentals, and perform all necessary operations required for the Scope of Works generally described above. The selected contractor shall be licenced to carry and administer scheduled drugs as per the requirements of the Australian Government, Department of Health Therapeutic Goods Administration The Project Proponent shall provide workforce transportation from Cairns, via Aurukun to site, and accommodation on site as well as diesel, a concrete batch plant and site security.
Project Description	The Aurukun Bauxite Project (“the Project”) involves the construction of a new bauxite mine north of Aurukun on western Cape York Peninsula in Queensland, Australia. The Project is located on the land of the Wik and Wik Waya People. The Project Proponent is the Aurukun Bauxite Project Joint Venture, a joint venture between Glencore Bauxite Resources Pty Ltd and MDP Bauxite Pty Ltd, a Mitsubishi Corporation entity. The Project is managed by Aurukun Bauxite Management Pty Ltd, a Glencore entity, as agent for and on behalf of the joint venture participants. In 2021-22, the Project intends to proceed through agreement and approval processes, as well as a technical program, that will inform a final investment decision. Any procurement decisions are subject to approval of the joint venture participants. More information about the Project can be found at www.aurukunbauxite.com.au.
Location	The Project is located approximately 800km northwest of Cairns and 160km to the south of Weipa (by road). The Project site consists of three zones, which include the following facilities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Eastern Zone – Mine Administration Area, Accommodation Village, and Construction Camp; • Central Zone – Mine Infrastructure Area, Beneficiation Plant, Fines Containment Area, Process Water Pond and Tapplebang Dam. • Western Zone – Product Haul Road, Coastal Materials Handling Facility and Marine Facility This Scope of Works is to be performed: Site Wide.
Delivery Schedule	The Scope of Works in this package are anticipated to commence in 2023 subject to investment and regulatory approvals.
ICN Gateway URL	https://aurukunbauxite.icn.org.au

General Information

Submitting an Expression of Interest does not guarantee that a potential contractor will be invited to tender for this Scope of Works. Any tender process is expected to commence in H1 2022.

Any potential contractor should familiarise themselves with Glencore's global Supplier Standards, as well as frequently asked questions, which are available here: <https://www.glencore.com.au/suppliers>.