

PLUTO LNG TRAIN 2

Earth Rod Installation

SITE LOCATION

The Site B East Jobsite is a part of the Pluto LNG Park located on the Burrup Peninsula in the West Pilbara region of North Western Australia, approximately 13KM by road northeast of the town of Dampier.

SCOPE OF WORK

Includes but is not limited to the drilling of 212 x 12 meter holes approximately 100mm in diameter, installation of 212 steel core copper clad earth electrodes, backfilling with GEM compound, installation of a earth pit and earth cable.

The successful contractor to commence July 2023, staggered installation requiring equipment mobilization and demobilization, with final installation scheduled for Q2 2024.

Materials shall be free issued, with final numbers to be confirmed.