ICN NSW helps bring suppliers and project owners together by giving exclusive access to our powerful online database and our extensive network of Industry Consultants.

Summary

ICN assists development of local supply chains whilst contributing to the development and prosperity of SMEs in NSW.

ICN introduces businesses of all sizes to new business opportunities large and small across NSW.

ICN provides powerful procurement and supply chain tools, backed by experienced industrial consultants and ICN NSW Manufacturing Team.

Funded by NSW government, ICN NSW is a not-for-profit enterprise established in 1984.

How ICN NSW works:

Buyers are connected with capable local suppliers. Suppliers are connected with projects and on-going new business opportunities across Australia and New Zealand.

Our Industry Consultants proactively work with both project owners and suppliers behind the scenes to build the right procurement partnerships and provides supply chain capability data to project proponents and government.

Description

ICN NSW helps bring suppliers and project owners together by giving exclusive access to our powerful online database and our extensive network of Industry Consultants.

We introduce businesses of all sizes to new business opportunities large and small across NSW, via a network of experienced industry procurement and supply chain specialists.

ICN NSW was established in 1984 and is supported by NSW Government. Everything we do is guided by a clear vision to help increase economic activity and jobs for the business community of New South Wales and, more generally, Australia.
